Jackye's Fried Matzo

This recipe has been in our family since I was a child. My mother passed it along to me and I've passed it along to my son. Serve with fruit and if you're not kosher, bacon is yum.

Jackye

Ingredients

6 whole pieces matzo
2 tbsp milk or water
4 large eggs
 $\frac{1}{2}$ tsp. salt

Serves 3

Method

Hold Matzo under cold running water in a colander until softened. Beat the eggs, milk or water and salt together and mix well with the Matzo. Fry in butter or oil (I prefer real butter) until browned. Keep turning in chunks making sure it is cooked through. Serve scrambled.
